

CHAMPS

ASDAN Short Course in Peer Mentoring

CHAMPS is an accredited two-day peer mentoring short course aimed at pupils in Secondary School and beyond. It provides a detailed and age appropriate exploration of self-awareness, self-confidence, communication skills, the needs of others, rules, boundaries, confidentiality, disclosure and ethics.

This nationally recognised ASDAN accredited training programme can lead to the award of between 1 and 6 ASDAN credits. It helps to deliver improved self-awareness, increased resilience, raised self-esteem and confidence. It develops character and provides pupils with skills to support and mentor their peers in a range of settings. In addition, it provides evidence to support the promotion of British Values, tolerance, the rule of law and an appreciation of equality and competitiveness.

The training will equip pupils to help others through volunteering and can be used for a wide range of issues from transition, settling in, friendships and relationships, bullying and lifestyle choices. Evidence of involvement in Peer Mentoring creates added value for student UCAS Personal Statements, CV's and other applications.

CHAMPS can be differentiated for a range of ages and abilities including those with SEND and can be tailored to the specific needs of your school. This is done through discussion with one of our trainers, who are all qualified and experienced teachers.

This programme includes two full days delivery by a qualified experienced teacher, followed by a review visit, all pupil resource packs, individual certificates, badges and lanyards.
